

ANAHAT MUSIC THERAPY TRAINING

English Batch Course Material

(*This document is own intellectual property of Anahat , It can be used to indicate that the information provided is only for informational & educational use, Sharing/transferring/publishing the data without permission is illegal)

List of Indian Instruments

1. String Instruments

- Sitar: A plucked string instrument with a long neck and movable frets, used in Hindustani classical music.
- Sarod: Similar to the sitar but with a metal fingerboard and no frets, also used in Hindustani classical music.
- Veena: A plucked string instrument with various regional variants like Saraswati veena (Carnatic) and Vichitra veena (Hindustani).
- Tanpura: A long-necked drone instrument used to provide a continuous harmonic drone in Indian classical music.
- Mohan veena : A combination of guitar and veena , instrument sounds like acoustic and nylon guitar combination.

2. Wind Instruments

- Bansuri: A bamboo flute used in Hindustani classical music, played horizontally and often associated with Lord Krishna.
- Shehnai: A double-reed wind instrument with a conical bore, used in North Indian classical music and weddings.
- Nagaswaram: A traditional wind instrument from South India, used in Carnatic music and temple ceremonies.

3. Percussion Instruments

- Tabla: A pair of hand drums consisting of a small dayan (treble drum) and a larger bayan (bass drum), used in Hindustani classical music and various genres.
- Mridangam: A double-headed drum from South India, used in Carnatic music and temple rituals.
- Ghatam: A clay pot used as a percussion instrument in Carnatic music, played with hands and fingers.
- Dholak: A two-headed hand drum used in folk music and devotional music across India.
- Pakhawaj: A barrel-shaped drum with two heads, used in dhrupad and devotional music traditions.

ANAHAT MUSIC THERAPY TRAINING

English Batch Course Material

(*This document is own intellectual property of Anahat , It can be used to indicate that the information provided is only for informational & educational use, Sharing/transferring/publishing the data without permission is illegal)

4. Plucked Instruments

- Tambura/Tanpura: A long-necked string instrument used as a drone to accompany performances in both Hindustani and Carnatic classical music.
- Ektara: A one-stringed instrument used by folk musicians, particularly in rural areas.
- Rudra Veena: An ancient plucked string instrument with a resonator made of a large gourd, used in dhrupad music.

5. Keyboard Instruments

- Harmonium: Harmonium is not an Indian instrument, but It is popular for many music performing styles in india. A portable reed organ with bellows, used in various genres including classical / semi classical , devotional music , folk and qawwali as an accompany .

6. Folk and Regional Instruments

- Dhol: A double-headed drum widely used in folk music and celebrations across India.
- Bhapang: A single-stringed instrument made from a gourd, used in Rajasthani folk music.
- Santoor: A hammered dulcimer with strings struck with light wooden mallets, used in North Indian classical music and Sufi traditions.
- Chenda: A cylindrical drum used in Kerala's traditional percussion ensemble performances.
- Bugalbaccha / Khamak : A bengali drum used in folk music

There are list of various instruments available in india which playing in regional music styles.